RA EDITION

PONDERING

Let this year bring you the true faith – a faith that no darkness can obscure.

The Mother, 2 February 1944

This work is so minute that it is hard to describe. The only way of working is not to go into deep meditations, which affect only the summits of our being, or to attain an extraordinary concentration or ecstasies, but to remain right in the midst of things, to work at the level of the body, at the very lowest rungs of the ladder, so to speak, every minute of the day and night. This is why Sri Aurobindo insisted on the need for outer work and basic physical exercises, because such activities are the only way to measure oneself against Matter and to drive a little bit of true consciousness into it, or, rather, to allow Agni to emerge. This is why, too, he used to walk for many hours every day and then work at night. Through this external work, and because of it, the seeker will see all the false vibrations appear in broad daylight, all the creases of the body, as the Mother calls them. Next each false vibration will have to be rectified. But this is still a negative way of putting it, for there is only one Vibration of divine joy in the world and in things – the Vibration – because God is Joy. The moment falsehood sets in, that very vibration begins to become discolored, hardened, tense, and everything begins grating. Suffering is the most certain sign of falsehood. Pain is the Falsehood of the world. The task of the seeker, then, is not so much to struggle against so-called bad vibrations as to keep the true vibration alive, the divine joy in the body, for this joy has the power to set things right again, to ease the pain, to harmonize and to heal all those tight, wearisome, deceitful little vibrations in which our cells constantly live. It would be tedious, as tedious as the work itself, to describe the countless tiny falsehoods of the body through which old age, disease, and death manage to creep in. To do each thing in the true way, as the Mother says, while there are so many false ways of doing the slightest daily gesture. To give an example, this is one direction of the work among many others: we do everything in a state of tension, hurriedly, carelessly, unconsciously; in response to the thousand and one stimuli of outer life, not to mention crises, we behave physically like a patient in a dentist's chair; we are tense and nervous, because we are forever in a rush, afraid, anxious, or eager. This is the legacy of several millions of years of animal nature; our substance has retained the memory of all our struggles for survival, and its immediate response is to tense up. This tension is one of the causes of death, as well as a major obstacle to establishing the true vibration. When we become tense because of a blow, we concentrate all our vital force in one point, as a defense; an enormous current abruptly passes through a tiny opening, which turns red and hurts. If we could learn to expand our physical consciousness and to absorb the blow instead of rejecting it, we would not suffer; all suffering, at any level whatsoever, is a narrowness of consciousness. Similarly, if the warm, gold supramental dust were suddenly to fill our cells and the body reacted with its usual contraction, everything would explode. In other words, our cellular consciousness, like our mental and vital consciousness, must learn to expand and to universalize itself. Cosmic consciousness must be introduced there also. In mental silence, the mental consciousness universalizes itself; in vital peace, the vital consciousness universalizes itself; in the stillness of the body, the physical consciousness universalizes itself. Stillness, receptivity, and cellular expansion seem to be among the basic conditions for the bodily substance to be able to withstand Agni and to endure.

Immediately, however, a momentous difficulty arises. Universalization of the physical consciousness? But then, if the body is one with all other bodies, it means that all the other bodies are right there inside it, along with all the falsehoods of the world! This is no longer only one person's battle; it becomes the whole world's battle. We are now approaching the real problem. In this new physical transparency the seeker makes yet another, rather brutal discovery: all his yogic achievements and powers are falling to pieces. He had achieved a control of illness, of the body's functions, perhaps even of gravity, had even been able to swallow poison with impunity; he was the master of his house, because his consciousness was in control. But the moment he decides to transform the body, all his powers vanish, like water receding into the sand. Diseases assail him as if he were a mere beginner; the bodily organs begin to deteriorate. Everything goes awry. It would seem that the body has to forget its old false, decay-causing operation for it to learn everything in a new way. Then death enters the picture. Between the old mode of functioning of the body and the new one, in which the symbolic organs will be replaced by the true Vibration, the line separating life from death is often very thin indeed; perhaps one must even be able to cross the line and come back for the conquest to be complete and real. This is what Mother called dying to death, after having undergone an experience from which she almost did not return. In other words, one has to face everything, and everything resists. We are already aware of the same phenomenon at the higher levels of consciousness. As the seeker set out on his path, everything began going wrong: he who believed his mind to be firmly anchored in the truth was suddenly visited by a host of the most aggressive suggestions and doubts; he who believed himself pure and honest suddenly experienced an array of vital horrors, enough to scare off the worst villains in this world plus a few others from beyond. As Sri Aurobindo has already explained, one cannot solve a problem, on any plane, without confronting all the opposites of one's Goal. Otherwise, there would be no victory, but only repression. Nowhere, not on any plane, is it a matter of cutting off evil from the rest, but of convincing it of its own light.

CALL FOR MENTORS

As you might know, according to the present Entry Policy an applicant needs 2 mentors to start his/her Newcomer process. Mentors are responsible for supporting the Newcomers by helping them integrate into the life of the Auroville Community and its ideals. The mentors are the bridge between Newcomers and the Entry Secretariat and the Entry Board.

As you might have noticed, every week we publish the names of people from all over the world applying to become Newcomers and start the process of joining Auroville.

We really need mentors who can assist the Newcomers through their Newcomer period, offering guidance, supporting and being a solid link to the community.

At this moment, many applicants are waiting to start their process, but we are unable to take them in due to either unavailability or unwillingness of mentors.

Could you please reflect upon the present situation and reconsider whether to take new applicants or come forward to become a new mentor.

The Entry Board is available for you to help understand your roles and responsibilities in a friendly manner. Please write to us on auroville.entryservice@gmail.com or entryboard@auroville.services if you offer yourself as a part of the Mentor Pool.

We are looking forward to hearing from you.

Thanks,

OPEN LETTER: RELOCATION OF FARMS

To members of the farmservice, FAMC, Secretary AVF,

We write to express our concern as to the announcement that three farm areas (Buddha Garden, Siddhartha and Shambala) are to be removed to make place for a road, parking lots and convenience facilities. This will certainly be a loss for Auroville's agricultural sustainability and productivity.

We understand that a bypass road of Edayanchavadi may be needed, as well as facilities for visitors to Auroville and that there are not many land parcels in the area where this can be accomplished. However, despite some misgivings, we do not propose to oppose the plan as we do not have a fully clear view of the larger picture and we can see there is some validity behind it, nevertheless, while not opposing the road in principle we think that you could have in all fairness have discussed with the farm group to see if a way could be found to make a road that did not obliterate all this farmland, which appears to us to be in direct contradiction to other statements you have made about wanting to increase agricultural production in Auroville.

If the farms must go then what we wish to emphasise is that a proper plan for relocating these farms be implemented so their activities are not lost for the community. This means locating viable land areas with access to them and sufficient funds, enough to relocate and or establish new facilities, such as borewells, storerooms, accommodation, etc. We believe this to be a reasonable and necessary request that it is Auroville/AVF's obligation to fulfil.

We request that before any works start, the above matters should be cleared in an open and transparent agreement between the farmers, AVFO and the implementing ATDC group.

Regards,
Auroville farmers

OPEN LETTER

Dear Madame Secretary,

This is to inform you, with a heavy heart, that Mother's funding request, 13 pages, to build her town via systems engineering, in five years, has been secretly removed from References, Galaxy section, in the AuroNet. This is the niche I had created to post the most relevant documents on Mother's town which I have been gathering for the past thirty-seven years, often receiving them personally. Initially as a member of the Centre for Human Unity, instituted by Kireet Joshi and funded by the GOI.

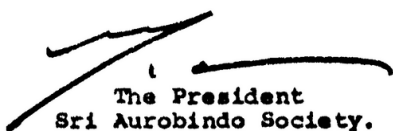

In 1987 Suresh Hindocha handed over to me a folder, never disclosed before, whose crown-jewel was Mother's resolve to adopt the systems engineering; this is the only document she ever signed on the Galaxy, as President of the Sri Aurobindo Society. When, with the help of one administrator, I was about to post under References the complete Hindocha folder, the AuroNet was taken over; this was also the end of my historical documentation on Auroville's official website. But at least Mother's letter had been posted, secured... until I discovered that even this most sacred, unique document has been suppressed... Nor does Mother's letter appear in "Arise" – the new official publication recently initiated – depriving this venue as well of the only, most precious document the Mother signed, and which I attach you.

To continue documenting Mother's Auroville as assigned to me, from the beginning, by Kireet Joshi, I have so far published three books:

- "The Auroville Foundation Act and the Mother's guidelines", 2005, sponsored by the Auroville Foundation.
- "The New Being and the New Society", 2012, sponsored by SAIER.
- "Interacting with Unesco during Mother's years", 2014, sponsored by Stitching de Zaaier.

It is my intention to complete the cycle publishing "Systems engineering Galaxy – the one plan the Mother approved for execution – and her guidelines".

Regards
Paulette

The President
Sri Aurobindo Society.

Mother's signature ends the funding request to the Ford Foundation.

NEWS FROM THE DOG SHELTER

Dear AV Community Members,
Dear Dog Lovers!

We want to draw your attention to a pressing concern regarding the well-being of healthy puppies found on the streets. Many of these puppies, despite seemingly being on their own, do actually have nurturing mothers who provide them with vital nutrition. Mother's milk plays a crucial role in their development, offering not only essential nutrition but also a boost for their immune system, which they need to survive.

The Auroville Dog Shelter is dedicated to rescuing dogs that can no longer survive on the streets due to illness, age, or accidents. While our shelter is currently over capacity, we regret that we cannot accommodate healthy puppies. Given that puppies lack vaccinations and our shelter environment is susceptible to viruses, healthy puppies will not survive for long in a shelter environment. Please understand that our shelter is not equipped to handle healthy puppies as we don't have 24-hour staff on site. If a puppy is sick or injured, we will make every effort to accommodate it and provide medical care.

We have initiated a street treatment program despite the many challenging circumstances at the moment. When informed about healthy puppies living on the streets, we establish schedules for visits to provide food and water on the spot, conduct health checks, and administer vaccinations to those of appropriate age. To ensure their survival, we're promoting a fostering program this month. We encourage Auroville residents and dog lovers capable of caring for these little ones to foster them for periods ranging from a few days to three months, offering them a brighter future. Be part of this program! Teaching a young puppy how to socialize, and spoiling it with your love and care guarantees that it will find a good permanent home when adopted.

Once we have built the new Auroville Dog Shelter, we will be able to house and care for puppies, providing a safe and nurturing space. An adoption program will also be developed to find them permanent homes.

We are actively pursuing a sterilization program for street dogs, which is the only long-term solution to controlling the canine population in the whole area. While awaiting approval from the Animal Welfare Board of India, a legal requirement for sterilizations of street dogs, we are fundraising to sterilize 1,000 street dogs in Auroville and the bioregion within a year. This substantial endeavor necessitates Rs. 25 lakhs, or €28,000, to effectively manage the dog population.

Let's work all together to solve this issue for a better future for our dogs and humans living together. Cities like Bangalore have shown that this problem can be solved, so let's show India that Auroville can also find a great long-term solution for the benefit of animals and humans.

Your Auroville Dog Shelter Team

VOICES AND NOTES

SHORTEN THE REALISATION TIME

A change of consciousness is like learning to play a new musical instrument: once you've enrolled then constant repetitions and prompts from the Master day in day out. Some don't even know what they've got themselves into. The Maestro has so many tricks up its sleeves to convert the old world mind that is too hard-headed, or too high-headed to even consider being a willing servitor. So lots of baited tempts and painful hammerings needed, administered by the assistant gods. If transformation is not possible in this life then next, and next, and... no escaping One's only eternal Play after all.

The Sunlit Path of Bhakti is the easiest and most joyful, although in our self-limited hierarchical versions we don't get to choose our roles. One might get assigned as the ever repeating metronome...

Tick, tock, tick, tock, tick...

The replaceable string or the stick.

All unique sorts whatever, you name it.

Only upon perfection do you get to pick.

Voilà!

PS: a lovegift from none other than the Divine Mother:

"...those who have as a link between them the knowledge Sri Aurobindo has given and the will to live according to that knowledge—there remains for them the possibility of intensifying their aspiration, their will, their effort, to gather their energies together and shorten the time for the realisation."

STILL IN BETWEEN

Here we very carefully understand and apply the guidance from our founders the Mother and Sri Aurobindo themselves, as we are still in between:

"Someone from Auroville wrote to me that he thought he had come here to obey no one but himself (or words to that effect), but he noticed there are rules and laws. And he said, "I am not going to do any of this; I am a free man and refuse to do this." This was reported to me, naturally, so I wrote to him (I don't remember): "One is free only when one is conscious of the Divine and conscious that it is the Divine who makes decisions in everyone, otherwise one is the slave of one's desires, one's habits, of all conventions...."

I sent him that, and he kept quiet.

That's what I wanted to add here [to this aphorism (see below)]. We should say: One is free only when it is the Divine who makes decisions in each of us, otherwise men are the slaves of their desires, their habits, of all conventions, all laws, all rules.... And the more they think themselves free, the more bound they are!"

"320—The anarchic is the true divine state of man in the end as in the beginning; but in between it would lead us straight to the devil and his kingdom.

And what do I answer to the previous aphorism?

Ah, yes....

319—Governments, societies, kings, police, judges, institutions, churches...

Yes, he put everything into it: religions and police together!

Yes, it goes together!

I was delighted.

...laws, customs, armies are temporary necessities imposed on us for a few groups of centuries because God has concealed His face from us. When it appears to us again in its truth and beauty, then in that light they will vanish.

And what did I answer?

You said:

"The anarchic state is the government of everyone by himself.

"And it will be the perfect government when everyone is conscious of the inner Divine and obeys Him and Him alone."

A FEW IDEAS/POINTS/THOUGHTS

As a response to the idea that the NGT is something that people wanted, I would like to say that I believe that no one wanted it. But as is usually the case when a civil disorder, such as domestic violence within a family for example, can no longer be resolved internally, then it is, unfortunately, for the law to intervene. That is what it is supposed to be there for, no?

The NGT ruling has meant that Auroville has less control over its own planning but, in reality, as we have failed to put in place proper planning, it is understandable that this is now imposed, to at least meet basic standards.

Regarding representing one thing or the other, what else can one do? No one can, nor claim to, represent all of Auroville.

Most of the tensions are not just about a road or some trees but instead (briefly) about:

1. The censoring of the Auronet and removal of members (such as myself) without any process or reasoning. We still have no idea who the administrators are as they don't respond to queries.
2. The takeover of the Archives without any process or reasoning.
3. The censoring of the News and Notes and threat of litigation if anything of the RA selected groups was posted.
4. The leave India notice issued to Mael and the exit permit for Satprem and numerous other visa related issues and FIRs mostly given to people who say/said something that other people don't want to hear.
5. The implementation of "development" or demolition without reasoning, proper plans, community approval nor development priorities of any sort identified. There is a perspective master plan, not a master plan. It is written quite clearly on page 9 of the Universal Township Master Plan \(Perspective 2025\).
6. The threatening of eviction of people on above said areas for development despite the lack of the previously mentioned plans etc, and this despite the lack of housing in AV. There is a full map showing structures colored in red which are to be demolished to make way for a plan that does not exist.
7. The replacement of members of working groups without process and without approved mandates in their new role, in some cases dismissing procedures that had been arrived at after many years of tweaking though community processes.
8. The "requirement" for everyone to be on an email system managed by nobody knows who but who can access anyone's mails.

Does anything above have anything to do with human unity or even, at the very least, a half-decent society? I am all for peace, progress and development but where does that fit in with the above?

There is so much blame on why Auroville is not 'Progressing'. It always seems to be someone else's fault. Well, we definitely need to improve, and we definitely need to stop blaming others for things we need to work on. But how does one do the work here with the above happening? Does one just deny it as long as it doesn't affect you directly? Does one just rely on others to sort things out? Or time perhaps?

here seems to be an idea of where parks in Auroville should be, but I wonder how much thought has actually gone into it.

- When you picture a park do you think of green lawns with majestic trees here and there? A fountain in a central location? Maybe some permanent/semi-permanent art installations? Benches?
- How formal or maintained is it?
- How shaded is it? What about in summer? Is it shaded then?
- How much water is used? Unlimited or sustainably managed?
- Are there only a few lockable entrances/exits? Is it locked at night? Or perhaps earlier?
- Does it have established paths? What are they made of? How wide are they? Are they only for walking or can you also cycle on them?
- Are there secluded spots? Is there a maze? Can you clearly see from one end to the other or is it obstructed by vegetation/structures/statues?
- Is there a gradient of vegetation with formal, manicured areas and maybe wilder areas for habitats for animals and birds? What about insects? Are there bee hotels?
- Does it take into consideration and perform functions related to where water flows in the monsoon?
- Are spaces for events there? Permanent buildings?

Here are a few examples of parks in urban areas around the world for reference:

- Hamstead Heath \(England\) (790 acres): Contains manicured lawns, pools, play areas, ancient woodlands etc. Always open.
- Chapultepec Park \(Mexico\) (1,700 acres): Contains a zoo, lakes, museums, restaurants, sports areas, forest etc. Controlled opening times.
- Ibirapuera Park \(Brazil\) (390 acres): Museums, lakes, music hall, concerts, green spaces. Open from 5am until midnight every day.

Dryer areas, closer in type to what we have here:

- Kings Park and Botanic Garden \(Perth, Australia\) (988 acres): A mixture of grassed parkland, botanical gardens and 1/3 is bushland (the natural vegetation of the area). Open daily.
- Golden Gate Park \(San Francisco, USA\) (1,017 acres): Museum, Academy of Sciences, lakes, arboretum, wild animals, etc. Always open.
- Lumphini Park \(Bangkok\) (142 acres): Trees, playground lake, library, youth center etc. Openings vary based on areas.

In the next few weeks, I will attempt to go through some aspects related to this, within the Auroville context. What I would like to emphasise is that urban parks are not only a few trees here and there. They can be significantly larger than thin strips, be incredibly varied in style and perform multiple useful functions within urban centres.

CULTURAL ANNOUNCEMENT

JOIN US FOR AN AMAZING THEATRICAL EXPERIENCE - MAKING IT HAPPEN - FROM JILL NAVARRE

Dear Lovers of Theatre,

You can make it happen! This time, we are on the brink of a new theatrical experience. It's called Immersive Theatre, where the audience and the actors are not separated, but take part in the story ...together. Scary? You bet! Thrilling, if we can make it work and arrive, at the end, together, to a new Hope. A new Earth. Auroville!

The play is called "A FIRE: Spiritual Journey of a Nomad", adapted from the story UN FEU (A FIRE) by Aurovilian Pavitra (Pascal Estrem). By the title, you can guess that we are on the road to self-discovery, when a soul (the Narrator) tells us about his family's amazing journey from the horrors of World War II to a search for our "brothers and sisters" to arriving (We are Millions) to a New Earth. A New Creation. Auroville!

We figure the cost to be Rs. 5,46,120 or In Dollars $7,282, in Euros 6,827. That's our total budget for 3 nights of performance at CRIPA, Kalabhum, Auroville and includes support for the actors, costumes, set design, food and local transport. If you would like to see the full budget breakdown, please let me know. I can send it to you!

Ways to Contribute: It's pretty painless: Just say it's for a project called A FIRE: Spiritual Journey of a Nomad / the Auroville Theatre Group. Our Financial Service account is # 251067.

Thank you for taking the time to consider this appeal. Your support, large or small, will truly make a world of difference. We can't do it without you!

AWAKENING SPIRIT

WE ARE ALL ONE

In the Buddhist tradition this empty or "emptiness"
Does not mean voidness or nothingness;
As how could anything come from nothing?
All things have come from the One Supreme Something.
Emptiness means that each thing in the universe
Is empty of, or lacks, inherent existence.
A thing, even a particle of an atom, can only exist
Because of another particle or something else.
A phenomenal thing cannot exist by itself alone,
It must depend on another, and then another
In an intertwined karmic existence that is based
On a continuum of co-dependent causes and effects.
Thus the Buddha's teachings of Interconnectedness,
Dependent Origination, Interdependence, and Impermanence,
And the Non-attachment to things that change always:
The whole universe is in a constant state of flux.
These existential truths have been reconfirmed
By our modern sciences especially Quantum Mechanics,
From all experiments done by the branches of Particle Physics,
Definitive results now used in our modern technologies.
However, although this ever-fluctuating universe including us
Is in an ever constant movement of wiggle and dance,
There is this ever eternal Something, a Consciousness-Force
That is and has always been there, here, upholding the Play.
Without That One Eternal unchanging Basis, the Source, the Essence,
How can we, the constant changings, the becomings, even be?
And so the realisation: Tat Tvam Asi
You are That, We are That,
Only at present self-limited versions, bright sparklings,
The whole universe itself ourselves we are experiencing.
And with this understanding of the oneness of everything,
And that what we are experiencing is an evolutionary continuum,
We continue on in this profound self-realisation:
That We are all One.
The One superconsciously expressing Its infinite unique selves
For the Ananda, the bliss, of it all, of all possible existences.
And so in this Great Cosmic Adventure of the One and Its many
We consciously continue on...
Towards a Life Divine.

As we embark on building an entirely new Auroville Dog Shelter, we are seeking a strong-minded and big-animal-hearted individual to join our team as an additional executive. Your support will be crucial in helping us realize this significant project and build something truly remarkable for our dogs and the entire Auroville community.

Your daily presence at the shelter isn't required, but your strong connections within Auroville and knowledge of problem-solving within the sometimes confusing Auroville system will be a valuable asset. With our ongoing need for funding to constantly improve our animal care and expand our AV Community services, we would really need you to handle countless boring grant applications, oversee donation gateways to ensure our commitment to 100% transparency, and assist with organizing various tasks, be they sometimes as banal as finding firewood so we can cook our dogs their meals or even setting up and organizing major charity and fundraising events. The sky is the limit!

We need your professionalism, enthusiasm, patience, love for our dogs, and willingness to participate in our grand vision to build the best model dog shelter in India for our beloved Auroville.

If you think you've got what it takes and want to join us on this incredible journey towards a bright future for the Auroville Dog Shelter, contact us, meet the team, and let us talk!

Energy Cleanse through Yoga Kriyas - with Mamta Saturday, 19 August - 9:30am – 12:00pm

Yearnings for Peace: Peace Within, Peace Without - with Dr. Sehdev Saturday, 19 August - 2:00pm – 4:30pm

Harmony, Tranquility, Beauty & Generosity are essential expressions of Peace. Disharmony, tension, fear, and depression are various expressions of a life that is not at peace with itself. In this state of peace lessness, all our life energies are slowly dissipated. Peace Within - peace in our hearts, bodies, and minds, and Peace Without - in our families, nations, and in the world at large, are all of one piece. Through one's own life experiences and encounters, this workshop explores Peace as the most scintillating force in all its existential and spiritual manifestations.

ARAM IN THE THIRUKKURAL

"Thirukkural is gnomonic poetry, the greatest in planned conception and force of execution ever written in this kind."

- Sri Aurobindo

The Thirukkural is possibly the most popular and revered Tamizh text of the last 2000 years. Written by the sage-poet Thiruvalluvar it has touched countless lives around the world and showed the path towards right living. The book contains 1330 kurals under 133 topics/themes. These topics are further split into three categories - Aram (related to right conduct and action), Porul (concerning wealth, governance, leadership, etc.) and Inbam (pertaining to love and desire). These also closely parallel the Purusharthas - Dharma, Artha and Kama. The kurals themselves are aphoristic couplets only 7 words long, but as the siddha Avvaiyaar says, Valluvar has infused the depth and breadth "of the 7 seas" into each of them.

We feel it's important to engage with the Thirukkural regularly here in Auroville. To start with, we'll study a selected set of 30 kurals on Aram over 6 weeks. The sessions will be bilingual, a combination of Tamizh and English to make them more inclusive. Transliterations and translations will be provided prior to the session each week and sessions themselves will be an opportunity to delve deeper into the metaphors and their meanings. Anybody keenly curious is most welcome to be a part of this. Currently the sessions are being planned online. But if there is enough interest, we could meet in person too.

The study will be facilitated by Raman, a long term Aurovilian and student of Tamizh mystical and devotional poetry.

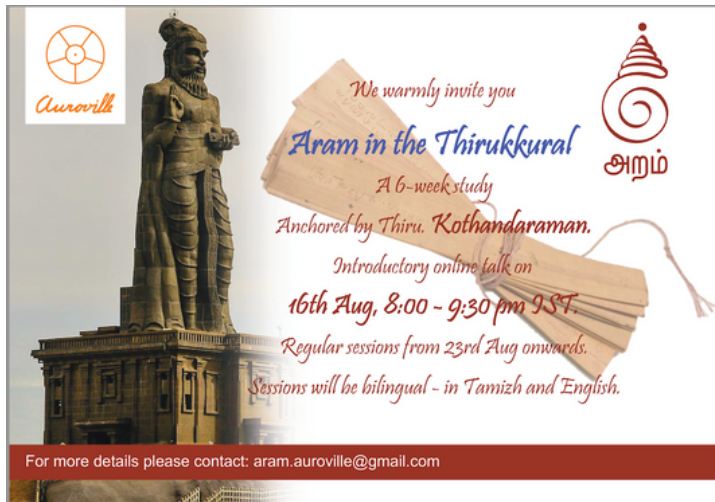

Dates:

We'll start with an introductory call over Zoom on 16th Aug, Wednesday, 8:00 - 9:30 pm IST, where Raman will give us an overview of the Thirukkural and the workshop. This is open to all and not just those who've signed up for the study. The regular sessions will start from 23rd Aug onwards for six Wednesdays at the same time as above.

Contributions are welcome but not mandatory.

Reminder: FRIDAY 11th, "Showing Up" by Kelly Reichardt, US, 2022

and

FRIDAY 18th AUGUST, 8.00 pm
"LEON MORIN PRETRE" (LEON MORIN, PRIEST)

Directed by Jean-Pierre Melville, France, 1961
With: Jean-Paul Belmondo, Emmanuelle Riva, Irène Tunc
 The film was adapted by J.P. Melville from Béatrix Beck's novel The Passionate Heart. It is set during WWII in Occupied France. A jaded, lapsed Catholic mother and widow of a Jewish husband, challenges a priest on the ground of religion. Sure of her rhetoric, she is nevertheless disconcerted by the answers he gives her. Gradually, she loses her footing. Each new encounter with the priest will bring her closer to conversion. Her resistance will yield to the work of grace... For his work in the film, Belmondo was very praised and awarded. The film also won the Grand prix of Venice in 1961. "An honest, moving, beautiful film – like the novel it reproduces so faithfully - We are amazed to be moved, troubled, to feel the supernatural pass."
Original French version with English Subtitles. Duration 1h.57'

VISION & WORK PLAN

For Auroville Food Security

Dear all, based on the interactions we have had with the farmers and the directives of the 57th Governing Board meetings regarding farming and food security in Auroville, the FAMC and Farm Service have come up with a work plan.

All of us, including the Governing Board, hold the vision that we must 'Enhance Auroville food production to meet the needs of Auroville' (4.10, 57th Governing Board meeting minutes). To achieve this, we need a new way of looking at our farming as a lot of crops that we produce (or can produce) are not used in the community and a large part of what is being used in Auroville comes from outside.

Since food production, distribution and consumption form an integrated part of the food system, we are working towards planning and accountability in all these areas.

While education and awareness will play a role in prioritizing local food, there are also challenges of pricing, consistency and production planning which need to be looked at.

At the same time, we must open our Auroville produce availability to nearby markets like in Pondicherry and Chennai, so that any excess can be distributed and the farms can start planning for higher production without the limitation of Auroville consumption or distribution.

We are also working on a food processing service which can create more value for the farm produce and help support the farms to grow.

These plans need hands-on work and we welcome anyone with goodwill and interest to join.

These and several other issues have been addressed in this work plan.

Your feedback and suggestions are welcome. Please let us know if you want to participate in any of these initiatives or areas. We need many hands to realize this work.

Warmly, Anitha, Anshul, Gino, Prasad
