PONDERING

What is the fundamental difference between the ideal of the Ashram and the ideal of Auroville?
There is no fundamental difference in the attitude towards the future and the service of the Divine.

But the people in the Ashram are considered to have consecrated their lives to Yoga (except, of course, the students who are here only for their studies and who are not expected to have made their choice in life).

Whereas in Auroville simply the good will to make a collective experiment for the progress of humanity is sufficient to gain admittance.

CHAPTER XXVII - THE GNOSTIC BEING

All the character of the life and action of the gnostic being would arise self-determined out of this nature of his gnostic individuality. There could be in it no separate problem of an ethical or any similar content, any conflict of good and evil. There could indeed be no problem at all, for problems are the creations of mental ignorance seeking for knowledge and they cannot exist in a consciousness in which knowledge arises self-born and the act is self-born out of the knowledge, out of a pre-existent truth of being conscious and self-aware. An essential and universal spiritual truth of being manifesting itself, freely fulfilling itself in its own nature and self-effectuating consciousness, a truth of being one in all even in an infinite diversity of its truth and making all to be felt as one, would also be in its very nature an essential and universal good manifesting itself, fulfilling itself in its own nature and self-effectuating consciousness, a truth of good one in all and for all even in an infinite diversity of its good. The purity of the eternal Self-existence would pour itself into all the activities, making and keeping all things pure; there could be no ignorance leading to wrong will and falsehood of the steps, no separative egoism inflicting by its ignorance and separate contrary will harm on oneself or harm on others, self-driven to a wrong dealing with one's own soul, mind, life or body or a wrong dealing with the soul, mind, life, body of others, which is the practical sense of all human evil. To rise beyond virtue and sin, good and evil is an essential part of the Vedantic idea of liberation, and there is in this correlation a self-evident sequence. For liberation signifies an emergence into the true spiritual nature of being where all action is the automatic self-expression of that truth and there can be nothing else. In the imperfection and conflict of our members there is an effort to arrive at a right standard of conduct and to observe it; that is ethics, virtue, merit, punya, to do otherwise is sin, demerit, pāpa. Ethical mind declares a law of love, a law of justice, a law of truth, laws without number, difficult to observe, difficult to reconcile. But if oneness with others, oneness with truth is already the essence of the realised spiritual nature, there is no need of a law of truth or of love, — the law, the standard has to be imposed on us now because there is in our natural being an opposite force of separateness, a possibility of antagonism, a force of discord, ill-will, strife. All ethics is a construction of good in a Nature which has been smitten with evil by the powers of darkness born of the Ignorance, even as it is expressed in the ancient legend of the Vedanta. But where all is self-determined by truth of consciousness and truth of being, there can be no standard, no struggle to observe it, no virtue or merit, no sin or demerit of the nature. The power of love, of truth, of right will be there, not as a law mentally constructed but as the very substance and constitution of the nature and, by the integration of the being, necessarily also the very stuff and constituting nature of the action. To grow into this nature of our true being, a nature of spiritual truth and oneness, is the liberation attained by an evolution of the spiritual being: the gnostic evolution gives us the complete dynamism of that return to ourselves. Once that is done, the need of standards of virtue, dharmas, disappears; there is the law and self-order of the liberty of the spirit, there can be no imposed or constructed law of conduct, dharma. All becomes a self-flow of spiritual self-nature, Swadharma of Swabhava.

Here we touch the kernel of the dynamic difference between life in the mental ignorance and life in the gnostic being and nature. It is the difference between an integral fully conscious being in full possession of its own truth of existence and working out that truth in its own freedom, free from all constructed laws, while yet its life is a fulfilment of all true laws of becoming in their essence of meaning, and an ignorant self-divided existence which seeks for its own truth and tries to construct its findings into laws and construct its life according to a pattern so made. All true law is the right motion and process of a reality, an energy or power of being in action fulfilling its own inherent movement self-implied in its own truth of existence. This law may be inconscient and its working appear to be mechanical, — that is the character or, at least, the appearance of law in material Nature: it may be a conscious energy, freely determined in its action by the consciousness in the being aware of its own imperative of truth, aware of its plastic possibilities of self-expression of that truth, aware, always in the whole and at each moment in the detail, of the actualities it has to realise; this is the figure of the law of the spirit. An entire freedom of the spirit, an entire self-existent order self-creating, self-effectuating, self-secure in its own natural and inevitable movement, is the character of this dynamism of the gnostic supernature.

COMMUNITY SHARING

EMERGENCY RESIDENTS' ASSEMBLY DECISION-MAKING PROCESS

WORKING COMMITTEE EMERGENCY FUNCTIONS AND FAMC

1ST MARCH - 10TH MARCH 2024

Dear Residents,

This Emergency Residents' Assembly Decision (ERAD) is about:

1. Directing the Working Committee (WCom) to coordinate the functions of the Funds and Assets Management Committee (FAMC).
2. Extending the emergency functions granted to the WCom in the Residents Assembly (RA) Resolution, dated 14.08.2023. This ERAD has been initiated through a petition signed by more than 300 members of the Residents' Assembly (RA) (3.3 RAD policy, 2023 - <https://shorturl.at/tAI34>).

INTRO

The Residents' Assembly urgently needs to regain control of Auroville's finances. The community's current financial situation is completely unknown to the RA, and its future is at great risk!

The RA selected FAMC (Funds and Assets Management Committee) has been unable to carry out its functions since July 2022, when the Governing Board seized control of Auroville's funds and assets by appointing a parallel FAMC - <https://t.ly/lct3O>.

Furthermore the Emergency Functions granted to the WCom (Working Committee) in August 2023 have expired and now need to be extended for a period of six months - <https://mailchi.mp/auroville/rad-results-14-08-2023-1001341>.

RESOLUTION

The Residents' Assembly (RA) resolves that the Working Committee selected by the RA, will coordinate the functions of the FAMC until such time as the circumstances allow for the selection and functioning of a new FAMC of the RA.

Furthermore the RA resolves to extend the emergency functions granted to the Working Committee on 14.08.2023, for a period of six months.

PARTICIPATE ONLINE

Use your personalized voting link sent by the Residents' Assembly Service (RAS). If you didn't receive the link, please check spam or promotions folders. If still not there, kindly visit RAS polling stations.

PARTICIPATE IN PERSON

If you prefer to register your decision in person, please visit the RAS polling stations:

THURSDAY (March 7th) @ Solar Kitchen: 11 am - 1 pm
SATURDAY (March 9th) @ PTPS Aspiration: 11 am - 1 pm
SATURDAY (March 9th) @ Solar Kitchen: 3 pm - 5 pm
SUNDAY (March 10th) @ Solar Kitchen: 11 am - 1 pm

KINDLY NOTE:

- Confidentiality is guaranteed: your name and vote will be kept a secret;
- Signing the petition to initiate the Emergency Residents' Assembly Decision-making process (ERAD) is not a vote, please make sure you submit your decision online or in person.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The Residents' Assembly (RA), as a statutory body of the Foundation, has always appointed the Funds and Assets Management Committee (FAMC) since its creation, until 01.06.2022 when a parallel FAMC was appointed by the Governing Board \(GB\) - <https://t.ly/lct3O>.

There is a long history of efforts made by the Working Committee (WCom), the GB and previous Secretaries of the Foundation to correct existing contradictions in the AV Foundation Rules 1997 - <https://shorturl.at/bpwxl>, in regards to whether the FAMC is 'of the GB' or 'of the RA'. Previous GB meeting minutes and letters to the Ministry of Education by previous Secretary's all affirm that the FAMC was intended to be 'of the RA' and requested that the Rules be corrected accordingly.

Given the current situation, the RA has been unable to guide and manage the funds raised and contributed by members of the RA and the assets created and managed by members of the RA. This has resulted in the inability of the RA to manage its daily activities and to plan its future economic vision.

The emergency functions granted to the WCom by the RA resolution - <https://mailchi.mp/auroville/rad-results-14-08-2023-1001341> - dated 14.08.2023 have expired.

It is essential for the WCom to have these functions extended for a period of 6 months, so that it can continue to function effectively given the ongoing crisis.

~ Best regards,

For the Residents' Assembly Service

VOICES AND NOTES

OFFERED FOR TRANSFORMATION OR DISSOLUTION

Narratives reveal the predominant consciousness hiding within. We can feel the vibrations behind words.

A consciousness that is undivine causes disharmony and pitiful psycho-emotional-physical sufferings, thus labeled as dis-ease.

A Divine Consciousness causes harmony and ease, a holistic health, and boundless Joy. Children and the ever child at heart exemplify this playful blissful divinity within us. Thus the joyful Divine Consciousness as revealed by the Mother's narrative:

"Auroville will be the place of an unending education, of constant progress, and a youth that never ages."

And of course that implies the complete opposite from a miserable undivine consciousness:

"Auroville will be the place of ever-deepening ignorance, of constant degradation, and a joyless aging that ends in misery."

Presented here for contrasting purposes, exemplified by individual archetypal roles, so that we can observe and co-learn from each other on how best to live our lives, choosing consciously that which resonates with our inner Divine Consciousness, the basis of which is Ananda...

Progressing on joyfully towards the Bliss of a Life Divine.

In total Bhakti to the Supreme Divine Mother Maha-Shakti, as willing servitors of the Divine Consciousness-Force, we offer all the undivine consciousnesses and vibrations for transformation or dissolution.

PS: Here again are the divine narratives from Sri Aurobindo and the Mother for anyone still too averse to the conscious generation of wealth through hard work (see No. 4 of 'To Be a True Aurovilian') for the Divine purpose:

<http://www.collectedworksofsriaurobindo.com/index.php/readbook/011-comments-on-Chapter4-Vol-the-mother-by-sri-aurobindo>

"... For this reason most spiritual disciplines insist on a complete self-control, detachment and renunciation of all bondage to wealth and of all personal and egoistic desire for its possession. Some even put a ban on money and riches and proclaim poverty and bareness of life as the only spiritual condition. But this is an error; it leaves the power in the hands of the hostile forces. To reconquer it for the Divine to whom it belongs and use it divinely for the Divine Life is the Supramental way for the Sadhaka.

You must neither turn with an ascetic shrinking from the money power, the means it gives and the objects it brings, nor cherish a rajasic attachment to them or a spirit of enslaving self-indulgence in their gratifications. Regard wealth simply as a power to be won back for the Mother and placed at her service."

Zech, 2024.03.02

"AUROVILLE IS FOR AN ELITE"

Thus Mother told her architect. When Roger told me, I was not the least surprised: what else?

"The first necessity is the inner discovery by which one learns who one really is behind the social, moral, cultural, racial and hereditary appearances.

At our inmost centre there is a free being, wide and knowing, who awaits our discovery and who ought to become the acting centre of our being and our life in Auroville." [1]

Those whose psychic being takes the lead are the elite.

Recalling Mother's words to the Aspiration's pioneers who met her weekly, Christophe reported: "... she said that the inner discovery should have been done before coming to Auroville. This was the very, very striking thing she said, that it would have been much better and much easier. But of course, it was not always the case for us". [2]

Elites cannot be bought: elite people are beyond material emoluments and outer recognitions. Money, power, honours, prestige cannot purchase the title. Millionaires or tramps, aristocrats or proletarians, university professors or illiterate, white or red, black or brown or yellow make no difference. 'Elite' is the essence of one's being, one's exclusive DNA; needing nothing else but the totality one is, from top to bottom, within as without. No need for patents of yoga, religion, spirituality, creed, ideology, no schooling is needed; elite people know from within.

Elite people came, the early years, and left. Put a certain number of these types together and the true Auroville is born.

Times like the one we are living strip the bluff naked. Beyond adversity, a momentous leap forward awaits us. This is the beauty of the moment: the real thing – or nothing.

Auroville can't be feigned. One is, or isn't, THAT.

OBITUARY

SUBRAMANIAN M. PASSED AWAY

Subramanian M. passed away on 28.02.24. We received the news that a mysterious train accident at Thambaran lead to his demise. He was 72.

He was cremated in Chrompet on 29.02.24 by his partner Shakuntala, his extended family and close friend Guna.

The last rites, submerging his ashes, will be done in the sea by Repos Beach by his partner Shakuntala and friend Guna.

In 1984 when he joined Auroville, he lived in Fertile Windmill (Baraka), then at the Matrimandir workers camp. When that got dissolved he moved to Prayatna. Over the years in Auroville he was a teacher, served at entry service, and later as a security liaison. Lately he worked at the New Creation sports resource center.

Our deepest condolences go to his long time partner Shakuntala, his family, Guna and other friends.

~ May Mother's Grace be with him ~

WHY ARE WE ON EARTH?

There are countless reasons

SATSANGA ON BHAGAVAD GITA IN EVERYDAY LIFE

We warmly invite you for an online Satsanga to integrate the teachings of Srimad Bhagavad Gita in our day-to-day life.

We had a deeply enriching experience with a group of 15 people coming together in such a collective exploration in Dec-Jan and hence are inspired to offer the space for this Satsanga again.

When: 18th March to 28th April (6 Weeks)

Time: 5 am to 6 am (Everyday)

Where: Online Zoom Call

We request that participants commit to attending everyday for the first week (Monday - March 18th to Sunday - March 24th) and then decide whether they would like to continue or not for the remaining 5 weeks.

Why and What: Absorb all the 18 chapters of the Gita and hold space for individual and collective reflections, practices, experiments and above all - Divine Grace.

How: श्रवण, मनन, निदिध्यासन (Listening, Reflecting, Self-enquiry & Embodiment)

Which Language: English will be the primary means of communication and we will listen to Sanskrit slokas and the reflections can be shared in any language preferred by the participant.

Who: Whether you are a beginner or well-versed with Gita, the format welcomes all to learn and share together.

Here are some excerpts from spontaneous feedback we had received from participants of the Satsanga on Bhagavad Gita in everyday life that we had held from 25th December 2023 to 4th February 2024:

"Thank you for conducting this deep sharing through Satsang on Gita. It has been enormously helpful for me. Can't thank you enough for creating the space for collective wisdom to emerge. I hope to stay connected with you all. I will strive to keep this burning fire of learning to continue with application in daily life."

"Thank you very much for the Satsanga that you organised and offered... It was a remarkable experience... You were very thorough in your work, extremely organised, and maintained time very well... You always started and ended on time and it provided a good structure for us to follow along... Your reflection prompts were also extremely thought provoking, and took us into spaces that we would not normally go into..."

"Thank you for taking us with you on this magnificent journey! If possible, I would like to be part of future Satsangs on the Gita."

"I am very much grateful for your dedication and determination towards these sessions."

"Thank you for facilitating a continuation of sessions for 6 weeks, I truly appreciate yours and your team's dedication. I take with me not just learnings of the Bhagvad Gita but also learnings from you all who are walking the talk in every which way that best becomes you. I wish for you and your team every joy, happiness and growth. I am grateful and would love to be of any assistance if you find me apt to help."

In this collective learning journey, we will all progress together, each at his/her pace. If this interests you and you'd like to participate then please sign up on: tinyurl.com/gitasatsanga

Please remember to put your mobile phones on flight mode and switch off all wireless and Bluetooth devices before you enter the Lab. We are a wireless-free space!

Something New: Evening Programs!

From 1st February 2024, we are launched a new experiment. The Language Lab has extended its opening hours from 5pm -7:00pm, Monday to Friday. We are offering special evening programs which include conversational practice with native language speakers, talks, as well as self-learning and guided study in different languages with our mediatheque. Our regular day-time students are welcome to take advantage of these sessions as well for some additional practice. This is to revive an old idea of "language exchange" and "sharing languages". This program | is free of cost to everyone: Aurovilians, Newcomers, Volunteers, Guests and people from around the Auroville area. The Language Lab has always been open to all and this program will be as well. Ever learnt a language but feel a bit rusty now? Come and revive it! All, including Guests are welcome to join. Come share your language with others!

Conversation Practice sessions would be Mondays for Tamil, Tuesdays for Spanish, Wednesdays for French & Chinese, Thursdays for English (On the Auroville Charter and The Dream) and Fridays for German & Italian. Please come forward for other languages, especially Sanskrit and Hindi!. All are welcome for these sessions.

Do let us know if you would like to be part of this experiment and what you would like to receive and offer, either as a participant or a facilitator, by sending an email to info@aurovillelanguagelab.org or a whatsapp message to +91 98430 30355.

Our first full-length publication: We are delighted to share that our first full-length publication, "From Resonance to Bonding" by Dirk Bechedorf & Franz Müller is now available on Amazon! The book gives an in-depth explanation of the Alfred Tomatis method, its scientific bases, how and why it works, along with detailed case studies. Order through our website: <https://books.aurovillelanguagelab.org/>

You can access the detailed Table of Contents, as well as 2.5 chapters of the actual book for free here, before decided to order through Amazon.

We are looking for sponsors to cover costs of the first print run, so that it can be available as a paperback. For now, in India, it is only available as a Kindle e-book. You can use a free kindle app to access it (mobile, tablet or desktop).

OFFERING MATH CLASSES

Math is for everyone, because math is in everyone. :)

I currently teach math at Transition School, and I also offer private math classes, alone or in groups for all ages upto 9th grade proficiency in math.

Math isn't arithmetic; it's the language humans came up with to study the observable universe. Einstein spent his life in the pursuit of a mathematical equation that would enable him to "read the mind of God"! Mathematics has thus historically been an intimate part of the lives of thinkers and philosophers, painters, inventors, healers, astrologers, cartographers, and more. Math invites us to open ourselves to enjoy and marvel at the unknown, and participate in a fantasy world where a 2 will always be a 2 and won't feel like 7 tomorrow. The real world has surprisingly limited uses for trigonometry or purchasing 200 watermelons, but math at all ages trains us in the art of enquiry and logical analysis, and the joy of the pursuit for truth.

If interested for yourself or your child, please get in touch.

WRITING FROM WITHIN

Writing from Within is a session to learn how to use the writing as a tool to get to know oneself, one's different sub-personalities, the unconscious strategies by which we sabotage ourselves but also the natural resources we have inside to overcome obstacles and evolve.

Moreover, many other creative writing exercises can also be practiced during the session, such as experimenting with sounds and rhythms of the words, rediscovering the innate talent of storytelling, reactivating lost creativity, exercising the inner muscle of imagination through memory, and much more. The sessions will take place at the European House.

Duration of the session: 1h30min.

For the Info and to book your session, write at

AUTHENTIC MOVEMENT, LIFE/ART PROCESS®, DANSE DU SENSIBLE & SENSORIMOTOR DRAWING

Hall of Light - Creativity

Tuesday 4:30 - 6:30 pm from 20th Feb to 12th March

with Ambre Jaïa

Donations for Creativity

Contact : +918301885179 / whatsapp +33630018728

Please bring 2 sheets of A3 drawing paper and oily pastels

Movement connects sensations, emotions, images, memories... It allows us to explore our inner world and express it, becoming more aware of it. In Authentic movement, we dive into a deep exploration in movement, while an external witness offers us an unconditional and safe presence, making us feel truly seen and accepted (which may heal deep unsecure attachment wounds). Our inner witness also awakens. More alive and aware, we are able to gather precious insights along our "movement in depth". In Life/art process®, we connect our dances with personal or collective life's issues. Our dances become rites of passage for powerful transformations, and boosters for our creativity! Danse du sensible is a fine way to become more embodied and sensitive to our sensorial life. In Sensorimotor drawing, we draw with both hands, eyes closed, listening to the inner impulses of our physical and emotional body, letting then these impulses become visible on the paper. We use this practice to balance our nervous system and become attuned listeners of the hidden messages of our body. Each session will weave one or two of these modalities.

CULTURAL ANNOUNCEMENT

THE FRENCH PAVILION PRESENTS :

"JOINT NOTE ON DESCARTES"

by Charles Péguy

Performed by Jean-Christophe Cochard under the direction of Jean-Yves Ruf.

Saturday 16th March at 6:30pm

At Kalabhumi, small amphitheater

IN FRENCH

The text of the Joint Notes, the last text of Charles Péguy, is intended for the man accustomed not to Wetting to Grace, that is to say to ourselves, filled with certainty, our morale and our the habits which have ended up making us impervious to the human fragility which is also ours, mine, yours. The Joint Note is a journey of thought, a long meditation out loud on the meaning of life undermined by social, economic, metaphysical, psychological alienations...

"This writing demonstrates a commitment ready to take action. We can feel it physically. Péguy's personality resonates under the progress of his thoughts, the energy that emerges from it, induces a desire for incarnation that we simply wanted to translate on the set of a scene" - Jean-Christophe Cochard, Jean-Yves Ruf.

"TOO LOUD A SOLITUDE"

by Bohumil Hrabal

Performed by Thierry Gibault

Adaptation and direction Laurent Fréchuret

Thursday March 14th, 2024 at 6:30 p.m.

Kalabhumi, Small amphitheater

IN FRENCH

A masterpiece by Bohumil Hrabal, "Too Loud a Solitude" is a political fable behind closed doors, grating, moving and desperate where the spirit of Beckett, Kafka and George Orwell hover.

For thirty-five years, Mr. Hanta has fed the press from a recycling factory where tons of books banned by censorship, and even masterpieces of humanity, are swallowed up day after day. "This kind of assassination, this massacre of innocents, someone has to do it. » Hanta works, drinks beer, wanders the streets of Prague, reads, and dwells on the mission he has undertaken: to save culture by snatching from death treasures so unjustly condemned. He saves up to two tonnes which he piles above his bed. But in this game of hide and seek, his performance drops. Rejected, abandoned by everyone, all that remains is for him to return to his beloved books...

"Bohumil Hrabal lived through the dictatorship and its censorship. He then plunged into his distant interior as a writer to open a door, a hope. A too noisy solitude is a wonderful theatrical material, a word, a game proposal to continue today to resist through pleasure against the machine that crushes humans. » Laurent Fréchuret

COURSES AND CONFERENCES

THE PAVILLON DE FRANCE PRESENTS

THE SHARING HEART

An investigation between science, traditional wisdom, and personal experiences.

Conference
By Laurence de la Baume
Saturday 9th of March 2024 - 17h30
In Pavillon de France
IN FRENCH

Everyone knows that the heart is both a biological pump, the symbolic center of our feelings and the seat of our emotions, but how many of us know that it is the most powerful organ in the human body? That it was created by nature to connect us to each other, to our environment and to the planet? That having a heart does not necessarily mean being in the heart? Because we are unaware that it is also our inner guide, the door to our interiority. Its electromagnetic force is infinitely greater than that of the brain. It makes it a sort of radar and conductor of the human body.

For some, it is even the vehicle of the soul and its incarnations. Because our heart is the only organ, in fact, capable of restructuring our brain, our habits, our beliefs, therefore our life... This is why it appears today as the key to the transformation that is required of us.

Laurence is an author, journalist and speaker. She wrote "Satprem, l'homme de l'espoir" in 2003, worked for the Arte channel for eleven years and was communications director for the Extreme Universe Laboratory, initiated by astrophysicist George F. Smoot, Nobel Prize winner in physics. Laurence is today a speaker on the following themes: how to introduce science and wisdom into our lives to be in the world differently, find meaning, improve and achieve fulfillment in our lives.

SPECIAL SCREENING OF THE VILGERE OF LOVERS

Special Screening of The Village of Lovers

Monday, 11th March @ 5:30pm in The Hall of Light (Creativity)
(75 min, English, Rated R)

Born out of the "free love" utopian movements of the 1960's and 70's, Tamera, an ecovillage in southern Portugal, is one of the most radical social experiments in human futurism. Recognizing that social change has to go beyond reactions to the dominant system. Tamera realized that building trust - especially in the most intimate areas of human life - was the missing key to long-standing cultural and political change.

Now, over 40 years later, when humanity's long-term survival has become increasingly uncertain, Tamera provides a regenerative and compassionate model for society, rooted in our reconnection to life.

The documentary will be followed by a discussion facilitated by Daniel Greenberg, former President of the Global Ecovillage Network and Friend of Auroville.

Seating is limited to 50. Please register by emailing daniel@ic.org

Reminder: FRIDAY 8 MARCH "THE LEMON TREE"

– Israel, 2008 by Eran RIKLIS

and

FRIDAY 15th MARCH

GRADUATION (Original title "Bacalaureat")

Directed by Cristian Mungiu - Romania, 2016

Synopsis: Romeo Aldea (49), a physician living in a small mountain town in Transylvania, has raised his daughter Eliza with the idea that once she turns 18, she will leave to study and live abroad. His plan is close to succeeding - Eliza has won a scholarship to study psychology in the UK. She just has to pass her final exams - a formality for such a good student. On the day before her first written exam, Eliza is assaulted in an attack that could jeopardize her entire future. Now Romeo has to make a decision. There are ways of solving the situation, but none of them using the principles he, as a father, has taught his daughter...

Pr. Sivakumar has offered us a "Cine-master class" on the film last year, presenting it as "a fascinating and complex study of one man's moral choices at a crucial juncture in his life, by the director of "4 Months, 3 Weeks and 2 Days" (Golden Palm and other prizes in Cannes Film Festival, 2017). And Arofilm wanted to present it more widely. Here is it!

Original version in Romanian with Engl. Subtitles, duration 2h.08'

Note : We would like to inform you that the monthly budget and the half-maintenances allocated to the Aurofilm team since a long time will be discontinued at the end of March by decision of the administration. We have 2 generous donors who have started to help us, but need more support to continue the activities and the Friday screenings at MMC/Cinema Paradiso (we rent the venue). If you can, your monthly or otherwise contribution (to our acc. number 252658) is most welcome! With much thanks - and see you soon!

MACBETH IN SPOTLIGHT THEATRE & CINEMA SERIES

08TH TO 10TH MARCH 2024, 20:00 TO 23:00 IST
ONLINE.

OVERVIEW:

"Macbeth in Spotlight" aims to understand why Shakespeare's voice still echoes through us endlessly across diverse mediums, cultures and minds, stirring something profound within us and compelling us to reflect back something of our own in the shade of his art's emotional and intellectual intimacy. We are bringing together Artists and Scholars across the world to share such interactions with the bard through his shortest and bloodiest masterpiece "The Tragedie of Macbeth."

This event also explores the subtleties and challenges inherent in translating the language, emotion, and narrative of one of Shakespeare's most vital meditations on the dangerous corners of the human imagination. At the commencement of the event, attendees will have the opportunity to explore theatre performances and a series of curated cinematic adaptations as recommendations for personal viewing beforehand. In the ensuing days, the event will feature in-depth discussions with eminent artists and scholars, shedding light on the nuanced layers of numerous interpretations.

Co-hosted by Jill Navarre, a distinguished playwright, screenwriter, and the artistic director of the Auroville Theatre Group, in collaboration with the Auroville Film Institute, "Macbeth in Spotlight" invites the audience to witness the metamorphosis of "Macbeth" across diverse cultures and artistic visions.

You'll not only witness the magic of storytelling within these Shakespearean interpretations but also develop a profound appreciation for the multiplicity of perspectives that interlace their cultural, intellectual, and personal nuances into the very fabric of this iconic play. This event is an opportunity to appreciate the intricacies of human emotion, cultural richness, and boundless creativity as they meet Macbeth.

SPEAKERS:

Vishal Bhardwaj (Indian film director, screenwriter, producer, music composer and playback singer)

A Conversation on Shakespeare & Cinema (Inaugural Address)

Vishal Bhardwaj, the acclaimed filmmaker who has garnered widespread critical acclaim and numerous accolades for writing and directing the Indian adaptations of three tragedies by William Shakespeare: Maqbool (2003) from Macbeth, Omkara (2006) from Othello, and Haider (2014) from Hamlet, will share his artistic encounters with Shakespeare. This talk will be moderated by Paromita Chakravarti.

Dominique Goy-Blanquet (Shakespeare scholar, Professor Emeritus at the Université de Picardie)

French Macbeth

The horrid image doth unfix my hair

No other play in the canon has inspired so many films around the world, not to mention other art forms. In France, despite the 'auld alliance', the Scottish play never reached the popularity of Hamlet. After some Brechtian productions in the wake of Jan Kott's essay, it made a belated entry at the Comédie-Française, with a creation for the Avignon festival in 1985.

Among eminent stage directors drawn to Macbeth, the youngest so far was Thomas Jolly, now engaged in the opening and closing ceremonies of the Olympic games, while the even younger Silvia Costa is rehearsing Yves Bonnefoy's translation at the Comédie-Française. Her production will be the first screening of Macbeth 'en direct' from the theatre on 25 April 2024.

Deb Kamal Ganguly (Filmmaker and Academic at Auroville Film Institute)

Beyond the Modernist Appropriations of Macbeth

The Cinematic Glimpses Towards the Premodern Affectations

Cinematic renditions of Macbeth, focusing on the downfall of a powerful individual, captivate modern audiences. However, this predominant interpretation of Macbeth occludes the brilliance of Shakespeare's multidimensional reinvention of the pre-existing 'morality play' genre, suggesting a temporality where the idea of 'individual' is entangled with the imagination of the collective faith in supernatural forces as tools of destiny and justice, and questioning the limits of 'divine rights' and 'monarch individual'. The presentation would be a speculation to look into cinematic adaptations of Macbeth, especially Akira Kurosawa's 'Throne of Blood', examining whether and how they transcend the secular modern periphery of the placement of the narrative towards a lost sensibility of pre-secular time through articulations of certain cinematic affects.

Anirban Bhattacharya (Actor, Singer, and Director of Bengali webseries Mandaar)

Macbeth within the wheels of modern times

I have lived with the thought of adapting Macbeth for a long time, drawn not by its political or social relevance but by the timeless elements of Shakespeare's plays. Initially, an image came to mind... a fish caught at the end of a spear. Setting it in India, with Macbeth as Mandaar, I knew crucial elements like societal outcasts, language, and cultural nuances would be woven into the narrative from the start. Mandaar's sexual dysfunction became part of his devastating pursuit of power. To convincingly recreate the supernatural elements, I employed a phantasmal look to break free from logic and immerse the viewer in the subversion. This journey of reimagining Shakespeare's magic for our times is what I'm eager to share.

Jill Navarre (Playwright, Screenwriter, Artistic Director of Auroville Theatre Group)

Shakespeare as a Drug : My 7 Bouts with Addiction

Having directed seven Shakespeare plays, I'm currently immersed in my eighth: Macbeth. Among my productions are classics from Romeo and Juliet to King Lear and Hamlet. Sri Aurobindo calls Shakespeare "The great magician", "a genius that transcends all laws ... a miracle of poetic force." What makes Shakespeare's plays so seductive?

For a director, the challenge of creating our world of the play holds a great reward. The real high is in rehearsing a Shakespeare play. Searching, finding, and then next time, finding again, discovery after discovery after discovery. There is no limit to the depth you can reach, rehearsing Shakespeare like the limitless visions of a psychedelic trip. I'd like to share what alternative realities we have discovered during rehearsal and why Shakespeare continues to blow my mind.

Poonam Trivedi (Academic, Vice-chair of the Asian Shakespeare Association)

The Shakespearean Image on Page, Stage and Screen

If images hold an iconic place in Shakespeare's plays, they are even more crucial in cinematic language, being the definitive structural unit of the visual medium of the cinema, with film being a string of consecutive images. While much has been written about the place and function of Shakespearean imagery, not enough critical attention has been devoted to how the same images constructed in words are translated into action in stage performance and how they are adapted into the multimodal space of the screen. Macbeth is considered the most imagistic of the Shakespearean tragedies and this presentation will examine some key images of the play and their transmutation in cinematic adaptations, Indian and Anglophone.

Paromita Chakravarti (Professor, Dept. of English at Jadavpur University)

Provincialising Macbeth in a Globalising India Reading Paddayi, Veeram, Joji and Mandar

Even as Indian cinema is reaching global markets, and the choice of Shakespearean themes are often facilitating this process, the films themselves are often demonstrating an interest in the local in the choice of settings and storylines. The paper will examine some recent cinematic adaptations of Macbeth in regional languages like Veeram (2014), Paddayi (2018), Joji (2021) and Mandar (2021) to analyse the implications of this trend particularly in relation to changing constructions of gender and sexualities in a globalising India.

Abhaya Simha (Film director and screenwriter of Tulu film Paddayi)

Localising Macbeth: Shakespeare in a fishing town

All is not well in the fishing village. There is power, disruption, and transition. It's Macbeth, after all. Yet, this time, the stars of the Tulu sky hover over Macbeth's black and dark desires. But why reimagine Macbeth in modern times, in a small fishing town, and in a minority language facing possible oblivion? Can this very fear of oblivion add texture to a narrative of fading power? In my reimagining of Macbeth, there is Yakshagana, the folk theatre in Karnataka, itself dripping with centuries-old stories. There are fishermen riding traditional wooden fishing boats in football jerseys, with conversations on migration, jobs, happiness, and profits interwoven into the rhythms of life dictated by the sea. I'd like to discuss this very journey of reimagining Shakespeare or being reimagined through Shakespeare.
