PONDERING

We surrender to Thee this evening all that is artificial and false, all that pretends and imitates. Let it disappear with the year that is at an end. May only what is perfectly true, sincere, straight and pure subsist in the year that is beginning.

CONCEPTION AND BIRTH :

NEW CONSCIOUSNESS

Page 26

It is not something one can pretend to have; an individual cannot pretend to have it, either he has it or he hasn't, because (laughing) in any circumstance of life, if it is a pretension, it will show clearly! On top of that, it does not give you any material power. There again, X once said—he was speaking of the true hierarchy, the hierarchy based on each one's power of consciousness—the individual or individuals who are at the very summit necessarily have the least needs; their material needs become less as their capacity of material vision grows. And that is very true. It is automatic and spontaneous, not the result of an effort: the wider the consciousness, the more it embraces things and realities,—the less its material needs; automatically, because they lose all their importance and value. The need for material necessities is reduced to a minimum, which will itself change with the progressive development of Matter.

And that is easily recognisable, isn't it: it is difficult to act the part.

And the second thing is the power of conviction, that is, the highest consciousness, when it is brought into contact with Matter, spontaneously has a greater power of conviction than all the intermediary planes. By mere contact, its power of conviction, that is, its power of transformation, is greater than that of all the intermediary planes. That is a fact. These two facts together make it impossible for any pretension to last long. I am looking at it from the standpoint of a collective organisation all the play of the various influences (gesture of mixture and conflict) and that in itself is a sure sign: even a slight descent—even into the domain of higher mind, higher intelligence—and the whole conflict of influences begins. Only what is right at the very summit and is perfectly pure, has this power of spontaneous conviction. Therefore, whatever one may do instead of that is an approximation and it is not much better than democracy,—that is, the system which wants to rule by the greatest number and the lowest level—I mean social democracy, the latest trend.

If there is no representative of the supreme Consciousness—that can happen, can't it?—if there isn't any, there could be instead, it could be tried, government by a few—a small number set between four and eight, something like that, four, seven, eight—who have an intuitive intelligence: 'intuitive' is more important than intelligence —with an intuition that is manifested intellectually.

This would have its drawbacks from the practical point of view, but it would perhaps be closer to the truth than the lowest level — socialism or communism. Everything in between has proved

The city the earth needs.

Intuitive Knowledge

Innumerable and vast for exploration, it is pure and fragrant. - The Mother to be incompetent: theocracy, aristocracy, democracy and plutocracy, all those have been a 'complete failure'. The other one, the socialist or communist government is proving itself a failure as well.

Basically socialism and communism correspond to a kind of absence of government, because they do not have the power to govern others; they are obliged to transfer their power to someone who exercises it, like a Lenin for example, because he was a brain. All this has been tried and proved to be incompetent. The only thing that could be competent is the Truth-Consciousness which would choose instruments and express itself through a certain number of instruments, in the absence of one—'one' is not enough either, 'one' would necessarily have to choose a group.

Those who have this consciousness may belong to any socialclass: it is not a privilege of birth, but the outcome of personal effort and development. In fact, that is an outward sign, the obvious sign of a change from the political point of view—it is no longer a matter of classes and categories nor of birth—all that is obsolete. It is the individuals who have attained a certain higher consciousness who have the right to govern—not others, regardless of their social class. This would be the true vision.

All those who participate in the experiment should be absolutely convinced that the highest consciousness is the best judge of the most material things. What has ruined India is this idea that the higher consciousness deals with higher things and that lower things do not interest it at all, and that it understands nothing about them! That has been the ruin of India. Well, this error must be completely eradicated. It is the highest consciousness which sees most clearly,— most clearly and most truly—what the needs of the most material things must be.

With that, a new type of government could be tried.

OBITUARY

JEAN-MARIE LEFT HIS BODY

This is to inform that Jean-Marie (Siddhartha Forest) left his body, during the night of 31st December to the dawn of 1st January, at home.

Jean-Marie's remains are resting at Farewell.

The cremation details will be announced as and when available.

For those who knew him: he was a true disciple of Sri Aurobindo and The Mother. Through and through an Aurovilian with heart and soul.

NAVROZ MODY

Navroz Mody, environmental activist, died in Pondicherry on Dec. 20, 2024. He was 79.

Born and raised in Bombay, Navroz was the only son of Kersasp and Rati Mody. He attended the Cathedral School, where he was a great sportsman, Head Boy in 1964, and Palmer House Captain. He was awarded the MacDonald Medal for Leadership in 1963. From 1965 to 1969, Navroz studied at the Dartmouth College, New Hampshire, USA, under the mentorship of Hans Penner, noted scholar of comparative religion. Returning to India, he worked as Regional Editor for Oxford University Press from 1971-1980. Among his editorial projects were the late volumes of the Handbook of Birds of India and Pakistan by Salim Ali, the renowned ornithologist and natural historian. Their friendship inspired Navroz's developing passion for environmental conservation.

During the 1970s, with Shyam Chainani and others, Navroz became a founding member of the Bombay Environmental Action Group (BEAG). For decades, through speaking, writing, and legal advocacy, he worked with BEAG to impact policy and effect change. At his death, he remained Honorable Secretary. In 1980, Navroz moved to Pondicherry to start his own business, Southend Typographics, and in Dec 1983, he joined the Auroville community. He developed a grant-funded project to enhance water and crop management for small farmers in the Palani Hills watershed. He played an integral role in the Palani Hills Conservation Council and was instrumental in legal battles to protect the region, including the landmark victory over Pleasant Stay Hotel in 1995. During the 1990s, Navroz worked with the global organization Greenpeace, helping to pursue legal action against the companies responsible for the gas leak disaster in Bhopal. In Kodaikanal, Navroz was instrumental in exposing mercury contamination and seeking justice for affected workers.

In Auroville, he was known as a "fearless soldier" for environmental justice. Navroz was a member of the team that worked on the Auroville master plan. Based on his extensive experience in environmental issues, he focused on the co-development area (now called "outside the Master Plan") and the Auroville Greenbelt. Navroz showed that "Planning" and "Natural Growth" in designing a Master Plan are not contradictory but complementary approaches. In 1999, he became a member of the official representative team for the Master Plan. In 2022, after the destruction of the Youth Center and Bliss forest, he was one of the two Aurovilians who petitioned the National Green Tribunal Southern Bench to preserve Auroville's forests and green spaces, uphold participatory planning and stressing the need for obtaining environmental clearance for the Master Plan area. Navroz was also an artist. In recent times, he has been instrumental in starting the Ecology Action Lab at Aurobrindavan, an innovative citizen science initiative in Auroville. Navroz will be remembered for his fearlessness, kindness, passion, his generosity, his concern for others, his capacity to articulate issues.

For his surviving family, his wife Susan, his sons Nishq and Rik, his grandchildren Zoe and Zorion, and for his friends, his indelible spirit remains. Navroz's remains were cremated on December 26th at the Auroville cremation grounds.

DEHASHAKTI NEW YEAR TOURNAMENT - 2025 COME FOR THE GAMES, STAY FOR THE AV SPIRIT!!!

Dear Auroville Community,

We are excited to announce the first ever Dehashakti New Year Tournament and everyone is warmly invited! Teams will be competing for Futsal, Basketball, Volleyball, Long Jump and Sprint 60 mtrs.

The Mother said this about A Good Sportsman -

- IS COURTEOUS
...On the field he does not jeer at errors; he does not cheer at the opponent's defeat; he treats them as guests, not enemies.
- IS MODEST
...On the field he works for the good of the team rather than for individual honour; he will even sacrifice his own prestige for his team; he is a gracious winner.
- IS GENEROUS
...On the field he applauds the good play of his opponents.
- IS GAME
...On the field he plays hard; he fights though he may be already defeated; he accepts adverse decisions; he is a good loser.
- IS OBEDIENT
...On the field he observes the rules of the games.

- IS FAIR
...On the field he competes in a clean, hard-fought but friendly way; he helps an injured opponent.

We invite everyone to come and embody this spirit as spectators. Cheer and uphold the spirit of an excellent sport, a good player, a fair game!

It is by example that we will inspire the next generation of Aurovillians.

ONCE UPON A TIME, BUT NOT ANYMORE: THROUGH THE THROES OF A HOSTILE TAKEOVER

Before: Era of curiosity

Question: Where are you from?

Answer: I am from Manitha Orumaiyin Nagaram.

Question: But it's so small, how can it be called a city?

Answer: Some like to call it Manitha Orumaiyin Palayam, because it's a work in progress.

Question: Aren't we all?

Now: Times of hostility

Assumption: Go back to your country.

Response: Idhu than en veedu.

Starting with its unique vision and philosophy, Auroville is considered a gem of India. For 50+ years, it was a place for spiritual growth, collective living, and sustainable development. Yeah, but that was before the plot twist.

Designed to promote human unity, it is a hub for global cooperation, hosting residents from over 60 countries who work together to create a harmonious and progressive community, making it a symbol of India's openness and commitment to universal values. Ah, those were the days...

Known for its ecological initiatives, Auroville has transformed barren land into lush forests and promotes sustainable practices in farming, energy, and architecture, serving as a model for eco-conscious development. But that's ancient history now.

Home to numerous research centres focusing on renewable energy, organic agriculture, and alternative education, these initiatives contribute to India's reputation as a leader in innovative and sustainable practices. That was before everything changed.

Through its values and contributions, Auroville represents the spirit of innovation, inclusivity, and harmony, blending tradition with modern aspirations. Well, that was a different era.

So, what now? With its cement roads and power-hungry administrators, what does Auroville still offer that's truly different, unique, and enticing?

Many are leaving. The majority are non-native Indians, either driven away by the infamous visa issues or, perhaps, choosing to face an all-too-familiar totalitarian system in a country where (at least) visa threats are no longer wielded as an ever-present sword. Quite an appealing image for an international community... The direct consequence? Residents are departing, and new applications are few and far between.

The phrase "between a rock and a hard place" probably finds its roots in situations like this one. Authoritarian regimes, state control, and rising jingoism are growing trends across the globe. Where can one turn? How can we save these safe havens?

Surviving a hostile takeover is a test of resilience and adaptability. May Auroville evolve, proving its relevance in a changing world and emerging stronger. If not, it may be time to reconsider the slogan, the narrative, even the website—because this version of Auroville no longer boasts the wonders that once made it the shining beacon of hope for its community.

At its core, Auroville's existence offers India spiritual, social, environmental, and economic benefits, reinforcing its role as a symbol of progress, unity, and sustainability. It is more than just a community—it's a living testament to what is possible in a more harmonious future, not just for India, but for the world.

SUSPECTED ILLEGAL SMUGGLING OF MATRIMANDIR SOIL OUTSIDE AUROVILLE

I would like to bring certain shocking developments with regards to the soil excavated from Matrimandir to the knowledge of the community.

Please refer to the google drive showing suspected illegal interstate transport of Matrimandir soil from Auroville in Tamil Nadu to Sanjeevi Nagar in Pondicherry.

I have evidence to show that the Matrimandir Executives and Selvam working at Matrimandir are complicit in this exercise. I strongly request the community members to confront these people and protect Mother's resources from being stolen blatantly.

- Regards

Major. Arun Prakash Ambathy (Retd)

Please read the below email addressed to Dr. Jayanthi Ravi sent Tuesday 31st December (read the original email here).

Dear Dr. Jayanthi Ravi,

On 27 Dec 2024 - Friday at 11 am, I noticed two lorries ferrying soil from Auroville in Tamil Nadu to Sanjeevi Nagar in Pondicherry. On confronting the people loading and transporting the soil, they told me that one Mr. Selvam working in the Matrimandir had asked them to transport soil excavated from Matrimandir to be transported from Auroville in Tamil Nadu to Sanjeevi Nagar in Pondicherry.

I was bewildered by the statements made by the people transporting the soil. I decided to follow one particular truck which was still loading the soil from the loading point to the destination. To my utter shock I saw Auroville soil excavated from the Matrimandir was indeed being transported to Sanjeevi Nagar in Pondicherry.

I have attached the photos and videos of the same in a google drive:

https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1PwmFb4fv0F_ojc81Rqyc9wgs6wxHvx9?usp=sharing

Registration Numbers of the Lorries transporting soil from Auroville in Tamil Nadu to Sanjeevi Nagar in Pondicherry.

- TN – 46 – A – 2578
- TN – 16 – H – 1230

I then asked ATDC member Mr. Govind if ATDC, appointed by the Governing Board, has given any permission to transport soil from Auroville in Tamil Nadu to Sanjeevi Nagar in Pondicherry?

He mentioned that he was not aware of any such permission or sanction. To verify my claims, he immediately sent Mr. Rajendran from ATDC to see if soil is being transported from Auroville in Tamil Nadu to Sanjeevi Nagar in Pondicherry. Mr. Rajendran also witnessed the lorries ferrying soil from Auroville in Tamil Nadu to Sanjeevi Nagar in Pondicherry. Infact, when Mr. Rajendran confronted the villagers supervising the unloading, they mentioned that the soil transport has the support of all five executives of Matrimandir.

In recent times, I have also noticed that multiple piles of soil from the Matrimandir excavations are suddenly going missing at a rapid pace. One can clearly observe JCB bucket marks on these soil piles indicating transportation of these soils. I also noticed that some of the plots where these soils are dumped do not belong to Auroville and belong to a private diamond company called Aditi Diamonds.

I request you to clarify the following:

- If any permission or sanctions have been accorded to Mr. Selvam working in Matrimandir to transport soil excavated from Matrimandir (Tamil Nadu) to be transported to Pondicherry?
- If any permission or sanctions have been accorded to Matrimandir executives or any other individuals to transport soil from Auroville Lands to Non-Auroville Lands?
- In case such permissions have not been accorded by you, I request you to take immediate action to investigate this matter and take necessary actions against the people involved in illegal inter-state smuggling of soil from Auroville in Tamil Nadu to Sanjeevi Nagar in Pondicherry.

I further request you to immediately stop any further unauthorised excavation and transportation of soil from Auroville lands to non-Auroville lands.

Lastly, I request you to audit the total volume of soil excavated from the Matrimandir site thus far, and corroborate it with the total volume of soil stored in the various piles across Auroville and protect the existing piles of excavated soils dumped at various sites in Auroville.

Requesting early action please.

- Regards
Major. Arun Prakash Ambathy (Retd)

DESPITE THE HORROR OF DETAILS

“One suddenly sees... It’s a certain region, there, a region in the earth atmosphere, vast and imperishable, where things take on a new importance, which sometimes belies appearances, and one sees a sort of great, immense current carrying circumstances and events along towards a goal... always the same goal, and through very unexpected paths. It becomes very vast, and despite the horror of details, as a whole it takes on a very smiling Rhythm....

Now I know, I remember, this whole experience came after I saw a book that was published quite recently in India, in English, which they entitled The Roll of Honour, and in which there is a photo and a short biography of all those who died in the fight against the British, for India’s freedom. There were photos everywhere, lots of them (some were only photos the police took after they had just been killed and were lying on the ground). And it all brought a certain atmosphere: the atmosphere of those disinterested goodwilled people who meet with a tragic fate. It had the same impression on me as the horrors of the Germans during the war over there. These things are obviously under the direct influence of certain adverse forces, but we know that the adverse forces are, so to say, permitted to work—through the sense of horror, in fact—in order to hasten the awakening of consciousness. So then, that experience, which was very strong and was very like the one I had when I saw the photographs of German atrocities in France, put me in contact with the vision of the human, terrestrial, modern error (it’s modern: it began these last one thousand years and has become more and more acute in the last hundred years), with the aspiration to counterbalance that: How to do it?... What is to be done?... And the answer: “That’s why you have created Auroville.”

A MEMORIAL BENCH FOR JAYARAM

Jayaram's smile and wave continues to be remembered by many of us as we drive past the big Enterolobium tree he spent his days under near the Matrimandir. We hope to place here a bench in his memory, with his name in English and Tamil.

A special account has been made to collect funds for this: 251950. The bench would cost approximately Rs.12,000. Please know that no funds have as yet been received for this endeavour, and we share this information in the hope it changes, without which we will be forced to accept this as a sign. Please donate, however small an amount.

REGULAR CLASSES:

Qi Gong - with Lhamo

- Monday - Wednesday and Friday 7 - 8:30am, drop in class

Qigong can be described as a mind-body-spirit practice that improves one's mental and physical health by integrating posture, movement, breathing technique, self-massage, sound, and focused intent. Specifically, this form of gentle exercise is composed of movements that are repeated a number of times, often stretching the body, and building awareness of how the body moves through space. There are likely thousands of qi gong styles, schools, traditions, forms, and lineages, each with practical applications and different theories about Qi ("subtle breath" or "vital energy") and Gong ("skill cultivated through steady practice"). As Lhamo has a very extensive knowledge of many of them, she will explore different styles according to the students.

Hatha Yoga with Ramesh

- Monday and Thursday from 5:30 - 6:30pm, and Saturday 7 - 8am, drop in class.

Ramesh offers hatha yoga classes with some vinyasa flow and include pranayama, traditional sanskrit mantra chanting, and meditation. The style is gentle, adaptive and progressive where passive, gravity-assisted poses are mingled with dynamic vinyasa-style flow as needed. He places a lot of focus on breathing and body-mindfulness during the practice. It is ideal for beginners to intermediate-level practitioners. You will be exposed to authentic Sanskrit terms and their correct pronunciation. The practice will be rejuvenative and restorative. These specific classes will be on donation basis even for guests.

Traditional Sanskrit Mantras with Sonia

- Thursday from 9 - 10am (Drop in class); and Friday from 5 - 6pm (Regular Students only).

In the recitation of Sanskrit Mantras the sound is very important and the specific pitches and strict rules of intonation and syllabic length should be learned according with the tradition of the great masters of the past, who figured out how to use the voice to calm the mind and attune the practitioner to the more subtle levels of the "sadhana" or spiritual path. Through the harmonic rhythm, repetition and participation in the singing, the mind reaches more clarity, concentration and tranquility.

Book Reading Circle - "Be As You Are" by Sri Ramana Maharshi - with Debashish

- Wednesday from 6 - 7 pm

The book beautifully explores the teaching of the sage of Arunachala. For him, the realization that "there is no reality other than the Self" was not merely a philosophical concept but a profound truth that shaped his life into one of boundless joy. And in time the world recognized the power of his grace. What was the essence of his wisdom that transformed countless lives and inspired generations of modern philosophers and spiritual teachers. Let's discover it together.

The pelvic floor is essential to many vital bodily functions, working quietly to support, protect, open, close, and stabilize. It collaborates with other muscle groups to maintain posture, balance, and breathing while stabilizing the hips, spine, and abdominal organs. As part of an interconnected system, the pelvic floor's functionality is closely linked to movement quality, breathing, vocal expression, sexual health, and more. Despite its importance, this area often receives little attention, even though its proper functioning is crucial for maintaining overall psychophysical balance.

This workshop emphasizes developing awareness of the pelvic floor through experiential anatomy and somatic exploration using the Feldenkrais Method.

Participants will explore their pelvic floor muscles in various positions, connecting these movements to everyday activities. This newfound awareness will then be integrated into the dynamic functioning of the entire body, fostering balance and vitality.

What You'll Explore:

- Contact Improvisation: Through shared weight, balance, and spontaneous movement, participants will experience the art of "physical conversation" and explore relational dynamics. Exercises such as giving and receiving weight offer insights into how we "carry" others professionally and personally, mirroring the dynamics within teaching teams and student interactions.
- The Feldenkrais Method: This approach invites you to discover habitual movement patterns, gain freedom from unconscious tensions, and embrace a more fluid, adaptable body. Participants will be guided to identify and release patterns of tension, leading to a greater alignment of body and mind.

Why This Workshop?

This experience combines movement and observation to foster a holistic connection between mind, body, emotions, and spirit. Integral Yoga teaches that each aspect of our being plays a role in evolving our consciousness. By bringing these dimensions into harmony, we aim to align with our inner guidance, creating a space of authenticity and acceptance.

In this workshop, participants will explore awareness through movement, ATM Feldenkrais, and beginner exercises from Contact Improvisation. They will discover how movement can channel their inner landscape, unveil patterns, foster self-awareness, and re-pattern sequences of movements—liberating movements. This approach resonates with Integral Yoga, where every inner potential is nurtured, and our journey toward consciousness creates a harmonious environment that supports collective growth.

Connecting to Integral Yoga and Integral Education

This workshop encourages us to cultivate presence within ourselves and with our family, community, colleagues, and students. As we gain self-knowledge and bodily awareness, we contribute to a nurturing environment where we feel connected to our inner guidance. Integral Education fosters autonomy and authenticity. It emphasizes that as teachers become more conscious of their physical and emotional patterns, they can inspire trust and mutual respect in their students, creating a space of growth and unity in diversity. We encourage Teachers in Auroville to join us.

Simonetta is an Italian dance artist and a somatic educator based in London. She applies the Feldenkrais Method in dance and movement training and performance making. She teaches at Trinity Laban, Goldsmiths University, and London Contemporary Dance School.

Her work is based on more than 30 years of dancing, teaching, and choreography. Her choreography has been for dance companies, student pieces, large-scale opera, improvised performances, site-specific, and movement direction for theatre.

She has taught for over 20 years in Italy and kept Contact Improvisation alive in Roma for 10 years with her classes and jams. She was one of the few dance practitioners in Italy who began working with Contact Improvisation in the 90's. She has been a guest teacher in Germany, Colombia, the UK, Norway, Israel, France, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, Portugal, Poland, and Taiwan.

She obtained her Post Graduate Diploma at London Contemporary Dance School; she is a qualified teacher of the Feldenkrais Method and holds the Teacher Certificate from the Royal Academy of Dance. WHO IS SEEING WHEN SEEING: THE KENA UPANISHAD AND THE SENSATION OF LOGIC

TUESDAY 7 JANUARY 2025

Who in our consciousness experiences sensations? How are sensations synthesized? How do matter, vibration, consciousness, and self connect? And how can we share sensations through art? Aurobindo introduced the uncommon notion of intermixture at a central point in his interpretation of the Kena Upanishad. This concept invites deeper speculation about the power of art and provides a profound tool to understand postmodern theories like Gilles Deleuze's provocative reinterpretation of the notions of concept, percept, and affect. The Logic of Sensation (Deleuze) is an analysis of the forces in modern painting as an encounter. It will become clear that Aurobindo's interpretation of the Kena Upanishad as a key text of the Vedanta can hold space for one of the most profound rhizomatic postmodern thinkers.

On a deeper level, I want to explore how Aurobindo's idea that sensations can 'operate without bodily organs' relates to Deleuze's notion of body without organs (BwO). Both philosophers point at the forces of consciousness on a plane of immanence.

The God Who Waits Within

July 14, 2013

Man moves as if a shadow of himself
 Trekking along a grey forbidding shore,
 Wanting to search, unable to recall
 The distant haunting memory, the key
 Once known in other worlds and ancient times.
 Pacing unaware of sky and sea,
 Lost in thought and wandering alone,
 Hoping, almost in prayer, to reach again
 The summits seen, the vision briefly glimpsed
 Of one who is the bearer of the Light,
 One who speaks directly to the soul.
 If one can still see beauty, feel delight
 In passing wayside blossoms, hear the song
 Perched atop a tree, a songster's prayer,
 Perhaps man may survive, the world transform
 And manifest the God who waits within.

POETRY

Like Anxious Moths

Like anxious moths
 That sense the light
 We batter nervously
 Against the top
 Of our own minds
 Until half mad
 We crack the straight laid tiles of thought...
 And lift in flight
 To gain the other side
 And immolate ourselves:
 Delight, delight.

Maggi Lidchi-Grassi (1930 - 2024)
 from her book "Seeds"

I thought I was
 Playing with the child
 Accompanying her to grow

Somewhere along the way
 It dawned on me —
 She was playing with me
 Accompany me to finally grow

A reversal?
 The Reality?

Special screening!

In memory of the legendary Indian filmmaker "Shyam Benegal" who passed away recently, Aurofilm pays tribute to his great contribution to the seventh art, screening one of his first feature films.

"ANKUR" (THE SEEDLING)

Directed by Shyam Benegal, India, 1974

Cast: Shabana Azmi, Sadhu Meher, Anant Nag...

Synopsis: In a small village in an Andhra Pradesh still marked by feudalism, Lakshmi lives a poor lifestyle along with her husband, Kishtaya, a deaf-mute with a penchant for the bottle. Both work for a wealthy landlord. The landlord's son, Surya, having to stop his studies, returns home to look after the estate as well as to formalize his pre-arranged marriage to the young Saroj. When Kishtaya is punished for a petty theft and absconds from the place, Lakshmi is left alone to fend for herself... Shyam Benegal creates a sublime and provocative examination of hypocrisy, economic disparity, and the social status of women in Ankur. The film was highly acclaimed and went on to win 43 prizes including the Golden Bear at the 24th Berlin Film Festival. It also happens to be the debut feature film of Shyam Benegal, introducing the actors Anant Nag and Shabana Azmi.

EDUCATION

AUROVILLE AIKIDO AT AV BUDOKAN (DEHASHAKTI)

Aikido is a martial art created in the 1920s by Morihei Ueshiba, a master in traditional Japanese martial arts. Aikido is a path which aspires to the unity of mankind, the unification of the self with the universe, the union of Spirit and Matter. Seen as such, and in the perspective of the integral development of the being as emphasized by Sri Aurobindo and the Mother, it is no wonder that Aikido has always been greatly valued in Auroville and introduced since the very early years. Both children and adults can enjoy and benefit from its complete practice. There are no competitions in Aikido. On the self-defense aspect of it, an aggressor's attack may be stopped without harming or injuring him/her.

The AV Aikido group welcomes new practitioners, Youth and Adult students, and the ones who would like to revive an old (abandoned) practice!

Adult classes:

- Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, 6 - 7:30am, early morning. Beginners are most welcome. Girls and women are especially called to join us.
- NEW: we are happy to announce an additional class on Wednesdays from 5.30 pm till 7:pm. The first class will be on Wednesday 30 Oct. Welcome!
